READING I - Acts 5:12-16

Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles. They were all together in Solomon's portico. None of the others dared to join them, but the people esteemed them. Yet more than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them. Thus they even carried the sick out into the streets and laid them on cots and mats so that when Peter came by, at least his shadow might fall on one or another of them. A large number of people from the towns in the vicinity of Jerusalem also gathered, bringing the sick and those disturbed by unclean spirits, and they were all cured.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-12, 13

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me. O LORD, you brought me up from the netherworld; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will. At nightfall, weeping enters in, but with the dawn, rejoicing.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me; O LORD, be my helper. You changed my mourning into dancing; O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

READING II - Rev 5:11-14

I, John, looked and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out: "To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever." The four living creatures answered, "Amen," and the elders fell down and worshiped.

GOSPEL - John 21:1-14

At that time, Jesus revealed himself to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "He also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead. This is the gospel of the Lord.

R/: Praise be to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CELEBRATE EASTER - 2013!

ST. STANISLAUS, (1030-1097), April 11

St. Stanislaus was born at Szczeyanow, Poland, on July 26, 1030 into a wealthy and noble family. He was educated at Cracow and ordained to the priesthood by Lampert Zula, Bishop of Cracow. In 1072, Stanislaus became Bishop of Cracow. He was the popular choice of both the people and his predecessor, Bishop Lampert. They revered him for his holiness and priestly devotion to the poor. As bishop, he continued to teach the message of Christ and generously served those in need.

Poland then was ruled by King Boleslaus II, a man whose sensual and cruel tendencies caused great harm to his nation. Stanislaus repeatedly admonished the ruler about his wrongdoings, until finally he excommunicated him from the Church. Enraged by the action, Boleslaus entered the chapel of St. Michael outside Cracow, where the bishop was celebrating Mass and killed him with his own sword. Boleslaus had the body dismembered and sought to hide it, but the saint's relics were recovered and placed in veneration at the cathedral in Cracow. Stanislaus died in 1097. His prayer: Lord help us be strong and loyal to our faith, and protect those who proclaim your word. Amen.

CELEBRATE THE GIFT OF NEW LIFE!

I asked God for all things so I could enjoy life.
He gave me life so I could enjoy all things.

THE STREET OF DREAMS

Just as we fall beside the road, discouraged with life, bowed down with the load, we lift our eyes, and what seemed a dead end is the street of dreams, where we meet a friend.
"The Lord sustains the humble."

GOING BEYOND OUR WANTS

Sometimes we behave like children in a toy shop. We want this, and that, and then something else. The many options confuse us and create an enormous restlessness in us. When someone says, "Well, what do you want? You can have one thing. Make up your mind," we do not know what to choose.

As long as our hearts keep vacillating among these many wants, we cannot move forward in life with inner peace and joy. That is why we need inner and outer disciplines, to go beyond these wants and discover our mission in life.
