READING I - 2 Kings 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the first-fruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over." And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us;

he answers all our needs.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD, and let your faithful ones bless you. Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us;

he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them their food in due season; you open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us;

he answers all our needs.

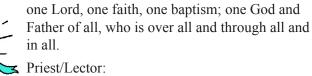

The LORD is just in all his ways and holy in all his works. The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us;

he answers all our needs.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

R: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Priest/Lector: A great prophet has arisen in our midst. God has

GOSPEL - John 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days?" wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

This is the gospel of the Lord.

R/: Praise be to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

LISTEN! TRY IT WITH THE LORD

Those summer sports, golfing, tennis, swimming, or even rocking away in a favorite chair on the front porch - these pastimes are among the great joys of summer. But most of us know from experience that sports demand more of us than "fun." Professional and academic coaches nearly all agree: Success depends on some "inspiration" but in large measure requires much personal "perspiration."

Our relationship with the Lord draws on the same tried and true combination of "inspiration" and "perspiration." The Lord will start the process with a little inspiration _ perhaps wonderful insights or challenging thoughts that suddenly spring to mind. But we know that the Lord also expects us to take His message out of storage in our memory. We need to move "inspiration" effectively into the context of our work and our daily lives. And that will always demand perspiration - that human effort usually defined as "work."

Active listening is one of those great gifts that blesses our lives with spiritual as well as personal enrichment. In relating to other people, including our family members, the importance of active listening is essential. Use patience, experts advice, as well as good to draw out the other person. Try to hear what that person is saying, not what you want to hear. The reward will be getting to know the other person better and on a much deeper level. Active listening does that. With God, active listening as a regular practice can also lead to a deeper experience in our relationship with the Lord.

Just wanting that deeper relationship with God is the inspiration. The work of it, the perspiration, involves discipline and patience on our part, a work that begins with silence. Quiet. And we all know how hard that is for us today. We begin in silence. Opening our heart and will to the presence of God. We listen! The next step is also challenging what athletes call "follow through." We must think wisely and honestly as we examine the events in our daily lives.

Summer is a good time to do a little spiritual stock-taking. Pencil the Lord in on your schedule. Call it a 10 minute daily spiritual retreat. And make it a "no excuses" time for you and the Lord. Make it a time for active listening.

Why not try it this year? Make time, give it a try and you may find "things slow down" to summer pace, right in that "active listening" corner you created for yourself and God!

HIS WORDS - FRUITFULNESS

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that bears fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. Remain in me, and I will remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me. "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."

—John 15:1-5
