READING I - Jon 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed," when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; teach me your paths, Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of old. In your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Good and upright is the LORD; thus he shows sinners the way. He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble his way.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

READING II - 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

Priest/Lector: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

R: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Priest/Lector: The kingdom of God is at hand.

Repent and believe in the Gospel.

R: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

GOSPEL - Gospel Mark 1:14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. This is the gospel of the Lord.

R/: Praise be to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

ST. TIMOTHY & ST. TITUS, First Century

Their feast day is January 26th. St. Timothy and St. Titus were co-workers of St. Paul in spreading the Gospel to the Gentile world. As he is described in Paul letters, Timothy was young and timid by nature. He was born in Lystra, Asia Minor. His father was Greek; his mother, Eunice, was a devout Jew who instilled in her son a warm, vibrant faith nourished in the Scriptures. Timothy was converted to Christianity by Paul about the year 47. Paul had deep affection for the young man and encouraged him to be unswerving in his ministry. Timothy was with Paul on many of his journeys and was imprisoned with him in Rome. Upon his release, he went to Ephesus and was appointed its first bishop. Tradition reports that Timothy was martyred under Emperor Nerva in 97. St. Titus was converted by Paul and also considered to be one of his closest associates. His solid faith, zeal, and capacity for administration prompted Paul to entrust to him the care of a number of churches in Corinth. Titus was ordained Bishop of Crete by Paul and accompanied him to the Council of Jerusalem. About 65, Paul wrote Titus a letter from Macedonia concerning the spiritual administration of the Christian community of Crete. Reportedly, Titus died at Crete at the age of 93.

"The Spirit God has given us in no cowardly spirit, but one that makes us strong, loving and wise."
— 2 Timothy 1
